

g3™ SUPERFRUIT JUICE BLEND

Antioxidant rich, 100% natural fruit juice

SUMMARY

g3 is ideal for adults and children who need to increase their daily recommended servings of fruits and vegetables. It is also helpful in fighting against cellular damage from free radicals caused by air pollution, cigarette smoke, stress and poor eating habits.

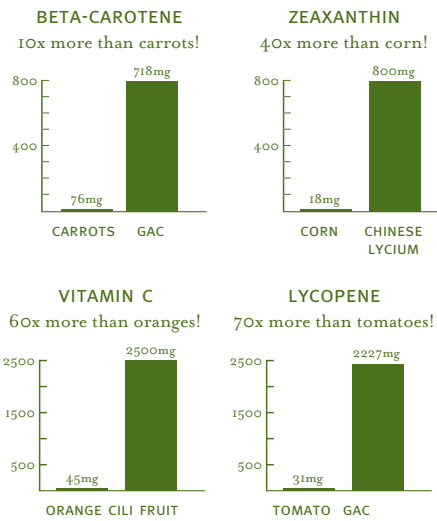

BENEFITS

- g3 is a 100 percent juice product made primarily from Gác, the prized “superfruit” of Southern Asia. Gác’s high antioxidant content makes it a great source for protection against free radical damage. g3 is further fortified by the addition of fruit juices from Chinese lycium, Siberian pineapple and the cili fruit from the mountains of China.
- Supports cellular rejuvenation
- Addresses the aging process by cellular and DNA protection
- Promotes antioxidant protection against vascular and cellular free radical damage
- Supports healthy immune function
- Strengthens antioxidant networks

PRODUCT FEATURES

- Contains fatty-acid bound carotenoids called lipocarotenes
- Gram for gram, Gác provides 70 times more lycopene than a tomato and 10 times more beta-carotene than a carrot.
- Stimulant and steroid free
- First marketable juice containing Gác
- Light, fruity taste
